

Employed Consultants

The Employed Consultant model is a service that allows Outsource UK to partner with clients who are looking for a solution to complement their existing contingent and permanent hiring.

We employ talented candidates on a permanent basis and contract them out to our end clients. This allows us to reduce the client costs on hires whilst offering stability and a clear career development path for the Outsource Consultant.

